FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Mandeville Regional Hospital Laboratory Introduces WhatsApp Appointment System for Blood Tests

In an effort to improve service delivery and reduce overcrowding, the Mandeville Regional Hospital (MRH) in Manchester has introduced a WhatsApp Appointment System for blood tests.

With this new service, clients can send a picture of their request forms and appointment cards with the next clinic date or doctor's appointment to 876-789-6565.

The requests will be processed and patients will receive a timely response with their appointment date, time, and necessary instructions.

The system also aims to alleviate the extended wait times clients have experienced when making appointments for blood tests.
